TECHNOLOGY THAT CONNECTS YOU TO THE FIELDS!

EXPLORE KRISHITHON

Discover Krishithon, a prominent player in the field of agricultural extension since 1993. As a global agricultural powerhouse, India holds tremendous potential. Now in its 16th edition, Krishithon offers valuable insights into the food and agricultural market, fostering business interactions with overseas participants. The primary aim is to boost bilateral trade between India and the rest of the world.

WELCOME TO THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITIES - NASHIK

Nashik, known as the wine capital of India and the agricultural capital of Maharashtra, boasts a harmonious coexistence of the agriculture and infrastructure sectors. It holds the distinction of being a leading producer of grapes, onions, fresh vegetables, and pomegranates in the country. Alongside its agricultural prowess, Nashik takes pride in its well-developed infrastructure, making it a preferred destination for industries. The city enjoys excellent rail, road, and air connectivity, facilitating seamless transportation.

Furthermore, Nashik's growth trajectory is set to soar even higher with the implementation of significant projects such as The Golden Quadrangle, Delhi Mumbai Industrial Corridor, Samruddhi Expressway, and Dry Port. These ambitious endeavors are poised to catapult Nashik to new heights of success and prosperity.
